Scouts & Guides Camp

28th - 30th November, 2022

Modern College of Professional Studies hosted an enriching three-day Scouts and Guides camp from November 28 to 30, 2022, aimed at fostering teamwork, self-reliance, and awareness of cultural diversity among students. The inaugural day saw State Training Commissioner Shri Surendra Kumar Arya inaugurate the camp by distributing scarves and waggles to the participants and honoring the faculty with Vogel. The event began with the traditional flag hoisting and a presentation on the scouting movement's heritage and principles. Participants were organized into groups and engaged in diverse activities such as yoga, team sports, Rangoli, pyramid building, knot tying, tent pitching, and first-aid training, all designed to develop a range of practical skills and promote physical well-being. An important focus of the camp was celebrating religious harmony and cultural representation, with students showcasing the varied traditions and cuisines of Indian states through their tent decor and culinary exhibitions. These representations were later assessed by the college authorities, who commended the students for their efforts.

The successful execution of the camp's activities, under the stewardship of Mr. Ashish Singh and Ms. Asha Sharma, demonstrated the event's commitment to holistic student development. Attended by dignitaries including the College Secretary and Principal Prof. Nisha Singh, as well as various department heads and spokespersons, the camp underscored the value of scouting in enriching student life and fostering a spirit of community and cooperation.
